

Question Time

key

other information

To extend the activity get pupils to write the questions.

You can lengthen or shorten the activity through the number of questions available.

You could also use this as an AfL or plenary activity but ensure it is kept short.

instructions

The aim of the exercise is to place large sheets around the room with different questions on them based upon the subject pupils are studying. Pupils in pairs rotate in groups to answer the questions by writing on the large question sheet. Eventually the sheet builds up a range of answers from different pupils.

The resource has a 2 minute timer.

Pupils are expected to visit each question and then return to the first question they answered where they will summarise the answers given.

If using the resource you can replay the timer according to the number of questions to be visited.

Don't have an interactive whiteboard....

Use a stopwatch to time each activity and countdown how long is left.

The table below explains what each icon used on the resources key represents. The key is broken down into 4 categories:

Starters (blue)
