

Stuck O Meter

key

other information

This could be adapted to be more specific to the lesson topic. Yet again use either cards around the room or develop a presentation for a computer or interactive whiteboard.

Also you could consider using this technique to set extension activities or learning checks.

instructions

This is a simple slide show to encourage pupils to think through the problem and use various sources of information before using the teacher.

This is ideally used on an interactive whiteboard but can be displayed on a computer within the room which pupils can access.

Pupils are directed to the resources and follow the instructions. This will prompt them to reflect on their current learning.

Don't have an interactive whiteboard...

You could create a set of cards which describe the slides from the presentation. These could be placed around the room.

The table below explains what each icon used on the resources key represents. The key is broken down into 4 categories:

Starters (blue)
