

Text me

key

other information

To differentiate this exercise pupils could work in pairs.

To extend the exercise you could reverse it by issuing different pieces of text and ask pupils to convert it into text speak. The class could then decipher these.

instructions

This is a simple starter exercise where pupils are issued with a piece of text written in 'text speak'.

The aim is for pupils to decipher the text to identify what it is saying. This text could be a fact or an instruction related to the lesson.

A 60 second timer is available on the resource.

Once the time has elapsed ask pupils to randomly feedback their answers. The class could hold a vote as to which they agree with.

This activity could be led by a pupil to minimise teacher talk.
